Thoughtfully Designed

With Gathering in Mind

At Blossom Rock, community means connection to the great outdoors and to each other. Our deliberately designed spaces encourage you to get outside and engage with residents and nature.

Community Parks

Painted Sky Park is our first inclusive space open to the public with two more community parks to come.

Neighborhood Parks

Our five neighborhood parks are a sneak peek into the dozens more that are still to come. Each park is unique and intentionally designed to be less than two blocks away from every home!

Linear Parks

Ironwood Park and Ridgeline Trail will feature miles of community paths and trails that will tie into our sophisticated park system. These linear parks will eventually run through the middle and edge of Blossom Rock providing a backbone of connectivity for the entire community.

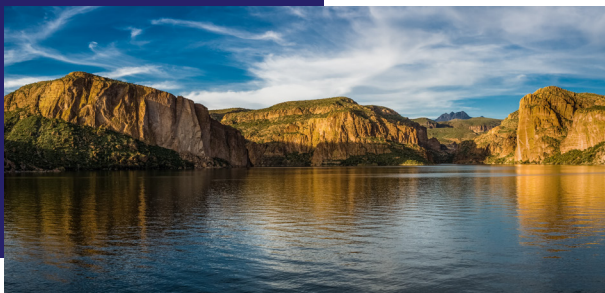

The Dutch Clubhouse & Pool

Anticipated to open in late Fall of 2025, this resident-only space will feature a clubhouse and pool overlooking the lake in Painted Sky Park.

Inspired Outdoor Adventure

The gateway to the rugged Superstition Mountains that soar more than 5,000 feet from the Sonoran Desert floor, Blossom Rock is the perfect home base for hiking and camping adventures to enjoy the wealth of natural surroundings.
